Completion date: 2007

Products:
open up, open mind,
silent rush, on stage

The new headquarters of CBRE Investors is located in the heart of Milan's financial district. In a building with a classical layout, the architect Cristiana Cutrona implemented modern solutions that meet very high technical requirements and create a pleasant working atmosphere with diverse coloured highlights.

In the conference room as well as at the workstations, open up was used.
